DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's amendments filed 8/13/08 are acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claim 1-5, 7-8 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lee 2002/0189274.

Lee teaches the invention as claimed:

Regarding claim 1, an indoor unit (fig. 1) of an air conditioner, comprising:
a main body casing 10, (fig. 9A); a front grill 40 provided forward of the main body casing and having a first opening 51 (fig. 2); a first movable panel 50 (fig. 9A) configured to move so as to open and close the first opening; a drive portion 73 (towards element 48 and element 41, fig. 2) configured to generate a driving force to move the first movable panel; and an opening and closing mechanism 43, 48 provided at the front grill and configured to move the first movable panel by the driving force of the drive portion to open and close the first opening; the opening and closing mechanism includes a first opening and closing mechanism 48,(fig 9A) for moving one end of the first movable panel by the driving force of the drive portion and a second opening and closing mechanism (close to same element as first opening and closing mechanism, but on opposite side of the casing, close to element 41b, fig. 9B) for moving the other end of the first movable panel by the driving force of the drive portion; the opening and closing mechanism is configured so as to distribute the driving force from the drive portion to the first opening and closing mechanism (6-3) and the second opening and closing mechanism (figs. 9A and 9B).

Regarding claim 2, at least when mounting the front grill to the main body casing, the drive portion is provided in the main body casing (fig. 9A)

Regarding claim 3, the opening and closing mechanism includes a supporting member 72 (fig. 9A) mounted to the first movable panel to support the first movable panel.

Regarding claims 4 and 16, the opening and closing mechanism includes a speed reducing mechanism (unnumbered elements inside the element 18, fig. 9A) for transmitting the driving force of the drive portion to the first movable panel.

Regarding claims 5 and 17, the opening and closing mechanism includes a converting mechanism (unnumbered elements inside the element 18, fig. 9A) for converting a rotary motion transmitted from the drive portion to opening and closing movements of the first movable panel.

Regarding claim 7, the first opening and closing mechanism and the second opening and closing mechanism each are formed as a unit (figs. 9A and 9B).

Regarding claim 8, the first opening and closing mechanism and the second opening and closing mechanism are provided such that they are respectively fixed to inner surfaces of left and right sides of the said front grill (fig. 9B).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 10-14 and 20-21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

In response to the Applicant's argument about one drive portion, the examiner notes that during patent examination claims are to be given their broadest reasonable interpretation consistent with the underlying specification without reading limitations from the specification into the claims. In re Prater, 415 F.2d 1393, 1404-05, 162 USPQ 541, 550-51 (CCPA 1969). In this case, broadly construed, driving porton on both sides of the unit is considered to be a driving portion, since the Applicant has not claimed any structure that would distinguish claimed driving portion from the applied prior art driving portion.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
